Welcome

I hope you had a relaxing Easter and managed to enjoy some of the sunshine. Now the weather has improved could you please send in sun cream and hats.

This term we are going to continue with the topic of Transport for the first week and hopefully take a trip on local bus. After this our topic will be 'Fantasy and Adventure'. We will be reading the book 'What's in the Witch's Kitchen?' By Nick Sharratt.

This term our book is...

Curriculum

My communication – making sentences about our story, talking about past events, individual SALT sessions, choosing and making requests in our preferred method of communication.

My Thinking – learning about the number system, size and measuring.
