Curriculum

This half term, our topic is 'You've got a Friend in Me.'

In our communication and language lessons we will be learning about features of Instructional texts and we will have a go at writing our own set of instructions, linked to our building.

We will also be implementing Read, Write Inc phonics this half term. As the programme is rolled out, children will be sent home with a reading book to share with an adult. This should be used to focus on their comprehension skills and to develop their enjoyment of reading.

In our cognition and learning sessions, we will be focusing on place value of numbers as well as measurement and fractions.

In our Personal and Independence lessons we will be learning about our emotions before looking at what makes a good friend and how we deal with issues within our friendships.
