Welcome

Happy New Year! A warm welcome back after the Christmas season, we hope you are well rested and ready for a busy new year. We will be experiencing all that the season has to offer whilst exploring seasonal changes during our horticulture sessions and continuing to explore winter warmer recipes and sharing our creations with you.

Please keep sharing your weekend news on Tapestry, as we love hearing about your family adventures!

This term our book is...

Mrs Armitage Queen of the Road by Quentin Blake.

Curriculum

During this term we will be exploring our topic 'Feeling the Force', experiencing different types of transport whilst exploring our wonderful world.

Our sensory story this term is the humorous story 'Mrs Armitage, Queen of the Road'. We will join her as she explores the open road (whilst having a few funny moments along the way). During our communication and PSHE sessions this term we are thinking about diversity and celebrating our talents and achievements. We continue to experiencing reflexology this term with Leah and continue our massage and body awareness sessions as part of our holistic needs.

During art and design we are exploring our senses and creating artwork as we focus on movement and forces. We will share our masterpieces on Tapestry.
