Welcome

Welcome back! We are looking forward to the summer sunshine, spending time outside enjoying our natural surroundings and our end of year celebrations. We have our trips planned to Grimsthorpe castle, as well as our Willoughby Summer production. So it's going to be very busy! We'll keep you informed and share our news and photographs on Tapestry.

This term our book is...

The Paper Bag Princess by Robert Munsch

Curriculum

We will be continuing our topic 'Swords and Sandals'. Whilst encountering what life might have been like long ago as we explore the castle and it's surroundings during our trip to Grimsthorpe.

In our communication and PSHE sessions, we continue to explore the theme my body – public and private; thinking about keeping safe and healthy. Now that the summer is finally here, we are sharing poetry, songs and aspects of summer during our seasonal sensations and sensology sessions.

During art and design, we are building a summer collage; incorporating colour and textures. We will share our progress with you on Tapestry. We will be making classic summer sweet treats during our sensory cookery sessions and sending them home.
